

ISTANBUL
RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Chamber Talks

12 April 2012, Thursday 18:30

Haydar Ergülen

“An İstanbul Classic
In İstanbul Literature: Selim İleri”

This week moderator Haydar Ergülen welcomes an İstanbul classic, Selim İleri, as part of the İstanbul Literature series of Chamber Talks. Naturally, the topic of the discussion is of Selim İleri’s İstanbul...

Having won the Aydın Doğan Grand Prize with his latest book Yaşadığım İstanbul (The İstanbul I Live In) İleri constitutes a corpus of “İstanbul Literature” by himself; with eight books on the city, the authors deserves to be named an “İstanbul classic.”

İleri, who admits to feeling like a “dinosaur” amidst the skyscrapers and “residences” of İstanbul, will share the culinary delights, coffee shops, patisseries, seasons, neighborhoods, streets, people, flowers, films, and writers of the İstanbul he experiences with all its intricacies and decorum.

Conference will be held in Turkish.
The event is free of admissions.